

Developing Honor Society (DHS) NAME

Officer Term Staggering

Purpose: The purpose of this policy is to provide guidance for leadership succession of the developing honor society's board and standing committees.

Procedure: Terms of office are staggered so that all officers, directors and the Governance and Leadership Succession Committee members do not end their terms at the same time

In accordance with the Developing Honor Society bylaws the length of the term of all officers is two (2) years. Note: The very first Board members term of office will be outside of this procedure.
